

Students representing Louisiana at the National Envirothon Competition in New Brunswick Canada hail from the Louisiana School of Math, Sciences and the Arts. They are pictured above in orange t-shirts holding the banner on the left side of the picture, and below prior to the closing ceremonies.

